

Career Development Facilitator Program

Is It Time for Renewal of Your Career? Get your certification!

Mandatory Classroom Sessions: 16 November, 14 December, 2012 and 15 February, 12 April 2013

Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA

Completion of this program leads to the Global Career Development Facilitator Certification (GCDF), a program of the National Career Development Association (NCDA).

EXTRA BENEFITS: National Certified Counselors can receive 60 hours toward their NBCC certification requirements. One year NCDA membership for non-member program completers.

National Portable Certification – take it with you wherever you go. It is a recognized certification across the US and internationally. Certification is through the Center for Credentialing and Education.

Personal Branding – Set yourself apart from others in your job search and promotion opportunities with the certification.

Professional Recognition – Use the certification to announce your credentials

Improve the Quality of Your Services – What you learn is multiplied times over for your students and

Career resources

Computers and career planning

Latest labor market information

Career planning processes and procedures

Basic helping and facilitating skills

Assessment techniques and selection criteria

Understanding the needs of special populations

Diversity considerations

Program marketing and promotion

Case management and referral skills

Ethical considerations in career development

Using technology in career development

Employability considerations and techniques

Career center issues and offerings

Program planning and evaluation

Start Investing in Yourself and In Your Future

The program is a 120-hour+ hybrid program using face-to-face classroom sessions, discussions, activities, field trips, interviews, and various e-learning techniques. If you work with students, customers, or clients in their career decision making and planning, or intend to, this program is for you.

COST: Registration and payments received through 15 October = $1250; from 16 October - 1 November = $1350; after 1 November = $1450. Registration closes at the end of the day on 12 November. Tuition includes all course materials and instruction. Payment can be made by check or credit card and must be received by the stated deadline.

DETAILED INFORMATION: Visit <http://www.janetwall.net/careerfacilitator.php> or call Dr. Wall at 202-465-5774.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Public and private workforce development personnel, educators, school counselors, teachers, college and university career center staff, career coaches, entrepreneurs, military transition staff, and human resource personnel.

Dr. Janet E. Wall, Instructor
President, Sage Solutions
202-465-5774

Ms. Celeste Hall, Instructor
Career Coach Specialist, Virginia CC System
804-393-0341

careerfacilitator@janetwall.net celeste10463@gmail.com

Site Coordinator: For information about the location and directions contact Nakia Madry nmadry@odu.edu.

Questions about the program should be addressed to Janet.